South Carolina Historical Marker Program
Established 1936

South Carolina State Historic Preservation Office

Before 1930

Since 1930

Historical Commission of South Carolina
1936–1954

in cooperation with

Works Progress Administration (WPA) Marker Survey
1936–1942

* * * * * * * * * *

South Carolina Department of Archives and History
1954–Present

SEWAH STUDIOS, INC.
BUILDING A BRIDGE TO THE PAST

Sewan Studios, Marietta, Ohio
Manufacturer of South Carolina Historical Markers
Since 1954

Marker Style, 1936–1954

Marker Style, 1954–1990
Marker Style, 1990-Present

Marquis de Lafayette (1757-1834)
Erected by Georgetown County, 1940

St. Paul’s Episcopal Churchyard
Pendleton, Anderson County
Erected by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, 1968

General Barnard E. Bee (1824-1861)
General Thomas J. “Stonewall” Jackson (1824-1863)

15th N.Y. Infantry, The “Harlem Hell Fighters,” at the Site of Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg
Erected 2004

Darlington Raceway
Darlington County
The First Southern 500, 1950
Erected 1997
Mt. Zion Rosenwald School
Mars Bluff, Florence County
Listed in the National Register of Historic Places 2001
South Carolina Historical Marker
Erected 2004

Campbell's Covered Bridge
Gowensville vicinity, Greenville County

Campbell's Covered Bridge
Erected 2002

Spann Methodist Church and Cemetery
Ward, Saluda County
Listed in the National Register of Historic Places 2003
South Carolina Historical Marker
Erected 2005

Spann Methodist Church and Cemetery

Captain Clinton Ward
(1828-1905)
Founder of Ward's Depot
(Later renamed Clintonward, then Wards, and finally Ward)

Hampton Terrace Hotel
North Augusta, Aiken County
1903-1916
Lobby
Entrance and Grounds
Marker Dedications

Hampton Terrace Hotel
Marker Dedication, 2000

Mann-Simons Cottage
Columbia
2004

Savannah River Plant
Aiken County
2004

Myrtle Beach
Colored School
Horry County
2007

Captain Samuel Earle
Oconee County
2006

Published and Unpublished Sources
County Histories
City Histories
Pictorial Histories
Institutional Histories
Family Papers
Newspapers