

What is now the United States and South Carolina was first occupied by the Native Americans, and then settled by Europeans and Africans. The settlement created a new blended American culture. South Carolina's first settlements were along the coast, especially in the Charleston area, and then spread inland over time.

Charles Towne Landing State Historic Site

Charleston

843-852-4200

<http://www.southcarolinaparks.com/ctl>

Childsbury Towne Heritage Preserve

Moncks Corner

803-734-3893

https://www.dnr.sc.gov/mlands/managedland?p_id=29

Colonial Dorchester State Historic Site

Summerville

843-873-1740

<http://www.southcarolinaparks.com/colonialdorchester/>

Drayton Hall

Charleston

843-769-2600

<http://draytonhall.org/>

Hanover House

Clemson

864-656-589

<http://www.clemson.edu/about/history/properties/hanover/>

Hopsewee Plantation

Georgetown

843-546-7891

<http://hopsewee.com/>

Living History Park

North Augusta

803-979-9776

<http://www.colonialtimes.us/>

Middleton Place

Charleston

843-556-6020

<https://middletonplace.org/>

Oconee Station State Historic Park

Walhalla

864-638-0079

<http://www.southcarolinaparks.com/oconeestation>

Poinsett Bridge Heritage Preserve

Travelers Rest

803-734-3893

https://www.dnr.sc.gov/mlands/managedland?p_id=39

Powder Magazine

Charleston

843-722-9350

<http://www.powdermag.org/>

Rice Museum

Georgetown

843-546-7423

<http://www.ricemuseum.org>

Walnut Grove Plantation

Roebuck

864-576-6546

<http://www.spartanburghhistory.org/walnutgrove.php>