

Auction Information and Rules

- All notes will be available for examination by appointment during January and early February 2022 at the South Carolina Archives and History Center, 8301 Parklane Road, Columbia, SC 29223. Digital images of sample lots will be available on the website: <https://scdah.sc.gov/2022-currency-sealed-bid-auction>
- The auction is a sealed-bid auction. No other type of bidding will be accepted.
- All bids must be delivered to (by mail, courier service or in-person):
Currency Auction
South Carolina Archives & History Center
8301 Parklane Road
Columbia, SC 29223-4905
- All bids must be placed in a sealed envelope inside an appropriate mailing container.
- Bids will be accepted by mail or in-person from January 15, 2022 until 4:00 PM EST February 15, 2022. Validity of bid will not be determined by postmark.
- All lots have a minimum, or reserve, bid. If a lot does not receive at least one bid of at least the posted reserve amount, it will not be sold.
- Sealed bids will be opened on February 17, 2022, beginning at 10:30 AM EDT at the South Carolina Archives and History Center. In the event of tie bids on any lot, the bid received the earliest will be the successful bidder.
- Winning payment is to be by cashier's check or business check only. Payments received by cashier's check will be shipped immediately; those received by business check will be shipped after the check has cleared. Winning bidders will be notified by email or mail. Payment must be received within 21 days of date of email notification or date of the letter notification.
- The South Carolina Department of Archives and History reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to waive technicalities.
- The rules are subject to change up to December 31, 2021.
