Preservation Works

Each year thousands of South Carolinians work to preserve the state's legacy that is reflected in our historic buildings, structures, and sites. Since 1995, the South Carolina Department of Archives and History, Preservation South Carolina, and the Office of the Governor have recognized exceptional accomplishments in the preservation, rehabilitation, and interpretation of our architectural and cultural heritage with a series of statewide awards.

These efforts demonstrate the outstanding commitment to preserving South Carolina's history; therefore the South Carolina Department of Archives and History, Preservation South Carolina, and the Office of the Governor have joined together to announce the 28th Annual South Carolina Historic Preservation Awards, recognizing exemplary work in historic preservation in South Carolina.

We invite you to nominate those individuals or organizations that represent the best of historic preservation in our state. If you would like to view award recipients from 2022, please visit: <https://www.preservesc.org/awards>

Any individual, organization, government agency, or business involved in the preservation of historic buildings, structures, or sites (including archaeological sites, cemeteries, and landscapes) in South Carolina is eligible to receive an Honor Award for a historic preservation project. Multiple partners in a project may be nominated, but may not exceed three, and must include the property owner.
