2026 Historic Preservation Conference Registration Open

Registration is now open for the 2026 South Carolina Historic Preservation Conference to be held Friday, April 24, 2026 at the SC Archives & History Center in Columbia.

The conference features 10 educational sessions, an optional tour of the archives, lunch, and networking opportunities.

Information about the conference sessions and registration is available at this link. Please register early as space is limited. The early registration discount ends March 31, 2026.

Call for Nominations: 2026 SC Historic Preservation Awards

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2026 South Carolina Historic Preservation Awards. Sponsored by Preservation South Carolina, the SC Department of Archives and History, and the Office of the Governor, the Historic Preservation Awards recognize exceptional accomplishments in the preservation, rehabilitation, and interpretation of South Carolina's architectural and cultural heritage. The six award categories are: Honor Awards, Stewardship Awards, Preservation Service Awards, Heritage Tourism Award, Organizational Excellence (new this year), Elected Official Honor Award, and the Governor's Award. Click here for 2026 nomination form and here for a list of previous recipients. Questions? Contact Joanna Rothell, 803-944-9425 or joanna@preservesc.org.

The nomination deadline is May 1, 2026.

FY 2026 Historic Preservation Fund Grant Application

Applications will be accepted until 5:00 PM, May 7, 2026

Please contact Brad Sauls at 803-896-6172 or bsauls@scdah.sc.gov to discuss your project before you apply.

FY 2026 HPF Grant

Applications and instructions for the FY 2026 federal Historic Preservation Fund subgrants are now available at this link. Administered by the SHPO, these matching grants assist two types of projects:

- Survey and Planning Projects: eligible projects include surveys of historic properties, National Register nominations, preservation education, and preservation planning.
- Stabilization Projects: eligible projects include stabilizing historic buildings or protecting historic buildings from the adverse effects of the weather, and are limited to projects located in South Carolina's Certified Local Government (CLG) communities.

Any local government, non-profit, or institution in South Carolina may apply for a Survey and Planning Project. Local governments, non-profits and institutions located in a CLG community may also apply for a Stabilization Project. At least ten percent of the state's annual allocation from the National Park Service must be awarded to CLGs. Grant awards generally range from $2,500 to $35,000.

The South Carolina Department of Archives and History is an independent state agency whose mission is to preserve and promote the documentary and cultural heritage of the Palmetto State. The department houses one of the most comprehensive state archival collections in the nation, spanning more than 325 years of South Carolina history. The State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO), a program of the SCDAH, encourages and facilitates the responsible stewardship of South Carolina's irreplaceable historic and prehistoric places.

The activity that is the subject of this publication has been financed in part with federal funds from the National Park Service (NPS), U.S. Department of the Interior, and administered by the SCDAH. However, the contents and opinions do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of NPS or SCDAH. This program receives federal financial assistance for identification and protection of historic properties. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended, the U. S. Department of the Interior prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability or age in its federally assisted programs.
